

Rep. Petri's E-Newsletter January 13, 2011

The whole country was shocked by the recent attack on Rep. Gabrielle Giffords by a very troubled young man who appears to suffer from a serious mental disorder. It's deeply saddening to think not only about Rep. Giffords but also about the people around her who were killed or injured, including a federal judge, several congressional staffers, a nine-year-old girl and other constituents who came to speak with their representative. I hope that everyone in the 6th Congressional District will join me in keeping all the victims in our thoughts and prayers.
